Please find vendor submitted questions below with the Government's response to the questions.

1. When shall we expect to receive the answers to [previously submitted] questions and revised design package?

The Government Response:

Any questions that have yet to be answered for this requirement are still under review by the agency. Answers are anticipated in May.

2. Will there be another bid extension to allow contractors sufficient time to relay this updated bid package to subcontractors, so they can reflect the changes in their quotes?

The Government Response:

The current quotation due date is May 2nd at 10:00am. If an extension is needed to answer vendor questions and provide ample time for quotations to be updated, it will be posted to SAM.gov.
